SCDI's basketball camp is more than a sports camp – it's a mentorship camp. It is a great place for any young basketball enthusiast to improve skills, work hard, make new friends and have a great camp experience while learning the importance of maintaining a positive and respectful attitude both on and off the court.

SCDI is committed... Our camp is committed to helping youth develop and refine their basketball skills in a fun and supportive environment. Youth master their shooting, passing, dribbling, rebounding, defense, teamwork and sportsmanship.
