The conference kicks off with the “My Brother’s Keeper” Mentorship Dinner – a powerful call to action effort on Friday, April 24th, 7 PM in the gymnasium of Shiloh. 100 minority young boys between the ages of 8-18 will be in attendance along with 100 adult male role models of color to begin the cycle of true mentorship to help young boys stay on track. Lt. Governor Byron Mallott will present greetings, President & CEO Jeff Kinneveauk of ASRC Energy Services, Inc. will present the keynote, and other men of color round out the program. On Saturday, April 25th, the “My Sister’s Keeper Mentorship Program” launches with a luncheon featuring various speakers including role models Judge Pamela Scott Washington, Senator Bettye Davis and other prominent women. The goal of the luncheon is to build relationships while establishing membership for the girls of color mentorship program. Other conference activities include youth leadership forums, parent and family community conversations, a basketball tournament with role models mentoring youth while hooping together on the court and more. This conference is all about improving life outcomes!
